

Google Cloud Content Delivery Network

The Google Cloud CDN content delivery network works with HTTP(S) load balancing to deliver content to your users. Load balanced content may come from the following backend types:

- Compute Engine virtual machine (VM) instance groups.
- Google Cloud Storage buckets.